Installation Instructions - Enscape3D 2.6.1.13260 V2.6.1.13260 License Key..KF Shënkolli KF Shënkolli () was a football club from Shkodër, founded in 1953, dissolved in 1963 and replaced by Shënkolli Erezeit, which was in turn dissolved in 1982. History Foundation On May 25, 1953 Shënkolli Club was founded by the brothers: Rrethi, Alush and Zeqirr, imam Kostaq Krasniqi, with the mission of consolidating and developing a society that has no limits in the field of sports, in the traditions of the Albanian club, with the greatest possible participation and representation of the citizens. The founding members of the new club were students of the Shënkolli-Bajram Curri High School. The first national championship that Shënkolli won was the 1964 Albanian Championship. 1953-1993 In the following years, the club won several football championships and played in European competitions. In 1966, the club participated in the 1967-68 European Cup, eliminating FK Tirana of Albania in the first round. Shënkolli finished 12th out of 16 teams in the 1968-69 UEFA Cup. In the 1970s, Shënkolli consolidated its positions in the Albanian and Yugoslav leagues. In 1974-75 the club won the Yugoslav league. In the 1980s, the club enjoyed the most successful years in its history, winning the Albanian Championship (1980, 1983 and 1984), as well as the Yugoslav league title in 1986-87. 1994-present The club was dissolved in October 1994, after many years of decline. In 1996, Shënkolli Erezeit was founded, but due to financial problems couldn't play its first season in Albanian professional football. The first match was played on August 5, 1997, in the Albanian First Division, Shënkolli Erezeit beat Arta 1-0 in
