This soundtrack is based on vintage game music, being inspired to the classic games such as Final Fantasy, Myst, Lumines, League of Legends, and much more. I created this for people who love game music and those who love making games. This music is all instrumental, it's all a one track, it's all music, no voice acting. The soundtrack is free to use and will be shared. Thank you for listening and for supporting me! About Game Developers We are Enygmage (Enyg, Pyne, Mage), a game developer team. Storyline Elylahs's Quest is a game made for those who want to experience the symphony of fantasy music. This is a quest with 3 acts and 3 episodes. My partner, Elylahs, is an enchantress. The sorceress whose magic is infused with the colors of nature. She is one of the most famous enchantresses of the planet Zor. She is also one of the most elusive, for the reputation of being a feared enchanter who commands a band of wizards with her magic does not give her easy access to power. I have fallen in love with Elylahs many years ago. But I could not reach her, or even have her hear my voice. Elylahs is one of the last links that I have in my life. Elylahs had written that if I helped her with a specific task, she would honor me with a reward. So I decided to wait for her at the Guild of Magi for years. The Guild of Magi is located in the most beautiful city of Zor, Polokus. It is one of the most important and renowned guilds on the planet. Polokus is the birthplace of the most sacred magics on the planet. But the Guild of Magi is not my only destination. I also want to speak

As the sun rises, so my dreams are approaching. My heart is thumping with excitement, as I am just about to have the first contact with my Elylahs. But first, I have to disguise my beauty with a magical ring, which absorbs the light to make me undetectable. The light makes me look different. But I no longer feel like me. When I enter Polokus, people greet me with hushed voices. No one is able to see my face clearly. It is as if I am a ghost. But if no one sees my face, I will not be able to speak to her. Because Elylahs is very particular about her face. She will not talk to someone who has no visual contact with her. She thinks that is disrespectful. So I have
